Mrs. Dorthea Samuelson

Words in themselves are quite inadequate to describe our warm affection for Mrs. Samuelson. With this in mind, we merely wish to say that without her pleasant smile and wonderful personality, Millcreek would have been a much poorer place in which to receive an education. It is an honor and a privilege to be able to dedicate this volume to her.

Foreword

Although this is the year 1950, in the age of the H-Bomb, the flying saucer, and Milton Berle, we have resorted to three rather common tools to bring you this volume—the camera, the brush, and the pen. With these simple devices we have created a "magic keyhole" through which you may look into the halls and classrooms of Millcreek. There you will see the pupils and their teachers engaged in a hundred-odd pursuits, some funny, some not so funny, and some serious. In years to come, we hope this book will serve as a source of many pleasant memories to those of you who are already familiar with our school life. To those of you who are not familiar with it, we hope these pages will serve to show the spirit of Millcreek, both in school and on the athletic field. The entire staff welcomes you to the 1950 KALDRON; may you receive as much enjoyment from it as we did.

Supervising Principal . . .

My congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1950. While in school your class has contributed scholastically, socially, athletically and provided leadership in many of the school's activities. I am sure that the school is better because of your having been here.

On behalf of the school, I hope that it has provided experiences which have contributed to your well-being. That these experiences will give you confidence and a basic knowledge to solve future problems. That you are a more rounded person, capable and willing to become a worthy member of a democratic society.

"A body hurtling hundreds of feet from the top of the world's tallest building to land with a sickening thud on the hard, unyielding pavement."

So begins the dramatic operation prosecuting attorney in the trial of a beautiful Miss Karen Andre, in the ghastly murder of her employer, Mr. Bjorn Faulkner, a business tycoon. During the process of interviewing the several key witnesses, the whole history of Faulkner's ill-gotten financial empire, false skillful questioning the two shrewd attorneys, Mr. Flint and Mr. Stevens, obtain all the details of Miss Andre's movements on the night of January 16. They even manage to place her at the rooftop penthouse of Faulkner at the time he was killed.

Just as the tide of evidence turns against him, Regan, a tough mobster and pal of Faulkner—retires from his hiding place in Argentina. His testimony impeccated party, John Gram Whitfield, the father of Faulkner's wife, Nancy Lee. This is the high point of the entire play, and soon thereafter the jury (selected at random from the audience) retires to its chambers to deliberate the decision. As in a real trial, the report is based on the evidence presented, and the outcome of the play depends upon the decision of the jury trying the case.

In addition to several other unusual production angles, which were called from the audience, strict conduct and order was enforced upon the audience in the matter of maintaining order, etc.

The good performance of the actors, the excellence of the directing done by Miss Natalya Holand, and the originality of the play itself combined to make a most interesting

Every spring a certain percentage of the senior class may be accepted into the organization, and approximately six students are chosen in their junior year. New members are brought into the National Honor Society during a solemn service. It is truly a great honor to belong to this nation-wide organization.

Officers for the past year are: Don Lambert, President; Audry Volkman, Vice-President; Marilyn Longley, Secretary; and Violet Schneider, Treasurer. The group has been under the capable sponsorship of Miss Zuck.

1950 Football Review

The outlook of Millcreek's '50 football season was very bright. With ten returning lettermen reporting to the opening practice, the outlook was very hopeful.

Our team combined fight, drive, good sportsmanship, and co-operation to result in one of the best seasons witnessed for several years. A fine record of wins was achieved, and we were able to defeat some of the top teams from both the city and district competition.

Millcreek's line this year was exceptionally heavy having an average weight of 300 pounds. This was a great asset to our team. However, we suffered several injuries. Don Gorr was the first to be hurt, suffering a broken collar-bone. Next came Bill Loesch with a fracture of the right arm; then another backfield man, Chuck Knight, received an injury to his hip. In the same game Rich Vommoro took a bad beating but remained in the game; for the remainder of the season he played with his ribs taped. All four of these injuries were suffered by backfield men. Then came the most serious and possibly the hardest felt injury of the current season, Jack Komora, our veteran center, suffered a broken jaw and a fracture of the neck.

Millcreek Varsity Football Team

Millcreek was represented in the "All Star Game" by two of our fine players Dave Spate, a lineman, and Chuck Knight, one of our backfield stars during the current season. Both boys played a "bang up" game and proved to be worthy representatives of our school.

Highlighting the football season was the crowning of Kathleen Hunter, the football queen. The presentation of the queen and her attendants, Peggy Heldt and Audrey Weber, took place before the East Millcreek game started here at the Millcreek field.

A large following of spectators added to the enthusiasm at the game which attested to the fine coaching provided by Gus Anderson and his two assistants, Paul Goll and John Kola.

MILLCREEK SWAMPS GIRARD 32-0

In our opening game, the Millcreek team found its weight and speed a major factor in holding Girard to one first down.

The touchdowns were made by: Virosko Gorr, Harrington, and Corbett; Jack Komora made 2 out of 5 placements.

TROJANS DOWN ROCKETS 6-0

The Trojans, after being stopped on the eight yard line late in the half, came back in the last quarter to drive 65 yards, finally crashing over from the 2-yard line for the only score in the game. This was a well earned touchdown which climaxed a hard fought game seeing both teams strong on defensive power.

TROJANS ROUT PARKERS 31-0

Unbeaten Millcreek rolled up its third victory in three starts by beating Lawrence Park 31-0. As a crowd of 1,500 people watched, Chuck Knight carried the ball for 2 touchdowns; the third tally resulted from a pass from Knight to Corbett. Frank Storracci scored the final touchdown by pouncing on the ball, which had been blocked by Jim Jackson in the end zone.

MERCER BOWS TO TROJANS 32-0

The Mustangs witnessed a "Knight" they won't forget, Chuck Knight, that is. In the first period Knight tossed a 30-yard pass to Komora to give Millcreek, a 6-0 lead. Knight then plunged over from the one-yard line putting Millcreek ahead 12-0. A 40-yard aerial from Knight to Corbett resulted in a 18-0 halftime advantage. Knight followed in the third quarter with another pass for a touchdown to Leleal. For the final score Knight carried the ball around left end, for his second touchdown of the evening.

HICKORY WHIPS UNBEATEN MILLCREEK 12-6

Millcreek suffered a beating which was spearheaded by big Jim Jefferies, a 230 lb fullback who seemed to gain ground at will against Millcreek's line. Larry Laughlin blocked a punt on Hickory's 12 yard line and set the scene for a touchdown play scored by Don Virosko in the first quarter. Chuck Knight, right halfback, was injured during the game, thus weakening Millcreek's defense for retaliation.

EAST TRIPS TROJANS 25-0

The East High Warriors outplayed and outclassed a slower Trojan team by swamping them 25-0. East garnered two six-pointers in the initial period and one in each the second and third quarters to put the game on ice. The Trojans threatened twice in the waning moments of the game but their passing game failed and the scoring fizzled there. East did their most damage by their fast break-away runners. They scored three of their four touchdowns on long dashes. This was Millcreek's poorest showing of the entire year.

TROJANS FIGHT BACK 28-12

The Oilers, in just four plays, scored a touchdown which immediately put fight and spirit in our team and the will to come back and win the game. In the second quarter Chuck Knight passed to Ralph Harrington for a touchdown climaxed an 80 yard drive. Chuck Knight then skirted around right end for a touchdown, making the halftime score 14-6 in Millcreek's favor. In the third quarter Knight passed to Robertson for the fourth touchdown; Komora successfully converted for four straight extra points. The final score was rounded out when Oil City passed late in the fourth quarter for their second touchdown.

MILLCREEK TROUPS HARBORCREEK 34-6

Millcreek got off to a good start with Chuck Knight running 55 yards to score on the first running play of the evening. Millcreek tallied 34 points before Harborcreek scored on an 80 yard run. All in all, Millcreek did well to avenge last year's 13-7 loss.

CONNEAUT EDGES MILLCREEK 18-7

The Conneaut team got off to a fast start with a 65-yard run and a touchdown. The Millcreek combine came back quickly with a 20 yard touchdown pass to take a 7-6 halftime lead. In the third quarter, Conneaut scored two touchdowns to sew up the game. Millcreek was definitely not out-played, as they made thirteen first downs to Conneaut's seven, but old man weather was just against Millcreek in our final game of the season.

Basketball Summary

Millcreek's basketball season of 1949-50 can be classified as a successful one. In competition with the other teams in the area, they made a record of 10 wins and 2 losses.

They did not fare too well in the early contests with their opponents, but all but three can be considered as upsets. These were thrilling upsets against Tech, Corry, and Strong Vincent.

The contest most likely to be called "Most exciting game of the season" would be the Corry game.

Don Metzler became the hero of this game by tossing in a charity shot which tied the score after an overtime period.

The team was without the services of their captain, Jack Komora, during half of the season because of his injury received on the gridiron.

Even though Millcreek's basketball squad lost many of their games, their spirit and determination made the fans stand by them throughout their games.

They blasted their way through the first half of league competition, going undefeated in their first five games. They defeated the strong Millicreek Bet the powerful Academy team, East, Vincent, and Harborcreek. The only games lost during the first part of the year were at the hands of the mighty Oil City team that later captured top honors in the Northwestern District Tourney at Oil City.

In the second half of loop play it was the Millicreek Betas who dominated the other teams. They started out like a house afire by trampling East, Vincent, and the other teams. In two rough and tumble contests they won close defeats, knocking them out of the running for the last-half

After losing two straight games at the outset, the first half play the Gammas thundered back to win three straight, tying Acad. They then played Academy for the cup and came out on top.

Junior Varsity Football Team Gets Training For Future

The purpose of Millcreek's J. V. Football Squad is to prepare these boys for future varsity competition. One of Millcreek's unwritten laws about sports is "It's not how you win, it's how you lose that counts." The coach of the J. V. Football team this year was Bud McCoy, who used strict discipline on the boys. After several infractions, the season was limited to two games. Millcreek lost both of these, one to Harborcreek 12-6, the other to Albion 6-0. But under Bud McCoy's coaching they learned how to win and lose, so the team and Millcreek took the season losses in their stride, and hope for a better season next year.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The J. V. basketball team had a highly successful season as far as gaining needed experience for future use on the varsity team concerned. However, as far as winning games, they were not quite as successful. Although holding their own against the county teams, they failed to win a game against the more powerful city schools.

Ed Werner captained the team and was runner up for high scoring honors. [The following year, Werner was captain of the basketball team and was runner up for high scoring honors.] Werner played basketball for three years, and was captain of the team in his senior year. Werner played basketball on a much larger floor.

The team was ably coached by Bud McCoy who taught his charges good sportsmanship as well as the fundamentals of basketball. He was capably assisted by John Patton and David Kahl, the managers.

Millcreek has the unique situation of being a school with two senior classes, one in the high school and one in the annex. This grade, the eighth grade, who only last year were the shy newcomers to the routine of school life.

Their enthusiasm was unparalleled, they sponsored a dance, a skating-party, and a campaign to purchase clocks for the rooms and halls of their building. All of these activities were highly successful, both socially and financially.

When these students enter the high school we are certain that they will be a great credit and a great asset to Millcreek.

Swing and Sway Artists

During the past year, the Orchestra has played for the Junior Play, Senior Play, Christmas Program, "Songs from Snow Boat" and "Immortalist". A very major contribution was their annual Spring Concert. At all of these programs they did a very fine job.

This year Mr. Todd Rishell was assisted by a fine group of officers. President Dick Froese, Vice President, Charles Roward; and Secretary-Treasurer, Evelyn Middaugh.

Thirteen members of this group also attended the Northwestern District Orchestra at Warren; while one of this number, Dick Fraick, also attended State Orchestra at Hanover. At these orchestras the musicians learned how real symphony orchestras are directed and a collection of music is played by these orchestras.

congratulations should be given to Mr. Kennell and his musicians for their fine performances and hard work.

The beautiful choral voices of the A Cappella chorus under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis began the year in harmony with election of officers. Sonya Stroble was president, assisted by Harry Elliott, vice-president. The chorus' treasurer was Al McCombs. Marion Benyon and Dorothy Benacci were librarians, while the robes were attributed to by David Michaleski, Audrey Weber, and Kathleen Hunter.

Northwestern District Festival, held this year at Lawrence Park

It has been another busy year for A Cappella. Mr. Phasey deserves a great deal of credit for all the time and effort that she gave cheerfully to making this group one of the most active organizations of the school.

Each year the best singers from A Cappella are chosen to form a double quartet. Also under the direction of Mrs. Phasey, the Double Quartet sang for the Senior class Commencement Exercise.

Mrs. Phasey picks these singers so their voices blend perfectly with each other, therefore producing wonderful music. The quartet meets every other week from 8:10 to 8:30, are doing a wonderful job

Mixed Chorus

One of the many new choruses of Millcreek is Ninth Grade Mixed Chorus. Under the direction of Mrs. Phasey, these freshmen are taught to read music and how to sing well. These members will be our future A Cappella. Mrs. Phasey has done a wonderful job with this class. Although they are not yet able to read music well enough to be sent to the Northwestern District Festival they will make, in future years, an A Cappella we will be proud of.

Student Council Boosts Student Faculty Cooperation

Activity was the by-word of this year's Student Council. From the first meeting in September to the final meeting in May, the council has been busy with a variety of projects and a few of the more important ones are listed below.

With Violet Schneider presiding, the council decided on a number of projects. First, a trip was made to Millcreek. Six members of the group made a study of the methods of Student Government. The trip was very profitable and the members returned with much more knowledge of the subject. At Millcreek, the council was very successful in patterning our future Student Council after the one at Millcreek. The council was very successful in thought in mind that many of the best ideas for the future of the school are on the shoulders of the faculty.

Early in the year the council was very busy with a project. It was an effort that could have easily been forgotten before it was completed.

They were very successful in their efforts. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work.

As a sideline the members were posted as hall monitors at certain times of the morning and afternoon. These monitors were very successful in their efforts to maintain a congestion and disturbance at key points in the building.

The task of the council was very successful. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work. They were very successful in the quality of the work and the price of the work.

Students Help Plan Entertainment Program

The Assembly Committee is a group of students picked by the various classes. The job of this Committee is to plan all the assemblies to be given during the school year. This year was the first year that Millcreek had this Assembly Committee and they really did a terrific job. Each class and organization was responsible for one assembly. It was the job of the Assembly Committee to set the dates for these programs and to decide what grades were to see them. Besides the programs that were put on by the students themselves the Assembly Committee also planned many paid assemblies. The price was always kept low enough so that any student could afford to come.

This year many new things have been added to the Hub. There is a whole page devoted to sports and a new sheet which is mimeographed to give the Millcreek students the latest gossip about the school and the students.

The members of this organization devote much of their time to the publishing of this newspaper and under the helpful direction of Advisor James Barr produce a paper of which we can be truly proud.

Girls Participate in Program of Sports, Socials, Service

The Y-Teens are closely affiliated with the Y.W.C.A., where many of their activities take place. The purpose of the Y-Teens is to provide constructive activity and promote better understanding among all girls.

This year the leaders who planned and directed the many activities of this organization were the president, M. Benyon, vice president, Barbara S. Keeler, Secretary, Dorothy Clinton, and Treasurer, E. Dolak. Marilyn Longley was elected Program Chairman; Elaine Keeler, Service Chairman, and Phyllis Bridger was named Service Chairman. These girls were elected by their fellow members as being notable in leadership, ability, interest, and capability.

The theme for the year was "Understanding Among All Girls". All of the programs corresponded to this theme.

The first activity was a social held at the Y.W.C.A. where the girls had a good time and were able to meet many new friends. The next activity was a service project where the girls went to the Y.W.C.A. and helped to clean up the grounds. The girls also participated in a tournament where they were able to show their skills and teamwork.

In January, a tournament was held at the Y.W.C.A. where the girls participated in a variety of sports. The girls did very well and were able to show their teamwork and skill.

A talent show was held at the Y.W.C.A. where the girls were able to show their talents and skills. The girls did very well and were able to show their teamwork and skill.

Dico Lingua Latin

The Latin Club was organized two years ago to create a greater interest in Rome and the gifts of the Roman civilization. It provides a broader cultural background which makes the Latin language more meaningful.

In addition to the regular meetings, the club has presented a play called "Captivi" which was rewritten from the play by Plautus. All of the actors wore costumes modeled after those of the ancient Romans and even their hair styles were similar to those of the time.

On December 22, a "Feast of Saturnalia" was given. Many of the teachers were invited as guests. The feast was patterned after the one held in Rome at the same time as Christmas. Slaves were chosen to serve as waiters. All research was done by the students themselves and every detail from the three courses of food served to the costumes worn by the actors was as close to that of the ancient Romans as possible.

Students are eligible to join this organization. The officers for this year were: Sandra Aron, President; Don Jackson, Vice President; and Donald Palmer, Secretary-Treasurer.

Students Do Background Work for Plays and Programs

Stars flickering in the sky and a manger that glowed in the dark are only two of the dramatic effects that were achieved by the stage crew. The chief purpose of the stage crew is to prepare the stage for plays, musical programs, and other productions. They also take care of the lighting and sound effects. In addition, they help to set up the stage for banquets, dances, and parties.

The membership is comprised of boys and girls who are taking shop, academic subjects or art. The art and academic students do special work for plays, such as making scenery and advertising

The boys that had been elected previously to the stage crew were Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior Class Plays, Spanish Club Play, and the Junior Prom Play. Many other boys and girls from these boys and girls were used in the Y-Teen Programs, the Pep-Meetings, and many other activities. The Auditorium was added to the stage crew for the band and the girls in the prom. The photography was done for many of the activity and class pictures.

The whole school owes a vote of thanks to the stage-crew for helping to make their performances a success

Working and Learning for Better Farming

The Millcreek Future Farmers of America is an organization. Its social and working aspects have been very successful this year.

In November, the F. F. A. square dance was held and much enjoyed by those who attended it. During the winter months, these boys formed a basketball team and spent much of their time practicing and playing. The banquet and installation of new officers was held in April.

This group was well represented in trips to both Harrisburg and Pennsylvania State Farm Shows. Millcreek has reason to be proud of the showing made at these events. Tractor demonstrations and tree pruning on nearby farms may also be added to this list of accomplishment.

With the help of the officers and advisor Jeff Payne, the boys have made this group a good representative of Millcreek in every respect.

Doing for Others is Motto of Group

Millcreek can well be proud of the work done by the Red Cross organization this year. Just a few of their worthwhile activities have been collecting money for the National Children's Fund Drive, collecting and filling boxes for children in Europe at Christmas time, and making different articles for veteran's hospitals.

Gordon Root is the president of the Millcreek Red Cross, Ed Newsham is the vice-president, Lois Kelton is the secretary, and Katherine Evans is the treasurer.

President, Gordon Root, is the vice-president of the Erie Chapter. He attended a Red Cross conference in Atlantic City.

Under the guidance of Miss Fry, the Red Cross has come to be one of Millcreek's most popular and worthwhile organizations.

Secretaries-To-Be Gain Skills for the Future

The Commercial Club teacher is the club advisor, Dorothy Dink.

The purpose of this club is to help its members become acquainted with the duties of a secretary. The members learn about many helpful things including grooming, manners, courtesy, and numerous hints on how to do their work.

This year the girls in the club went to the beach last fall and they had a very successful Christmas. The day after Christmas they went to the beach and helped to make things a little brighter for the children.

All the girls in the club are very busy and are working hard to make the year a successful one.

Girls Maintain Sports Program

The girls in the Commercial Club are very busy and are working hard to make the year a successful one. They are also working on their sewing projects and are very proud of their work.
